

Please do not weaken laws that protect our right to privacy. It is often difficult to be interrupted when tending to children or business or other things of a personal nature effectively. Quality time is critical, as is just plain old time. If a consumer wishes to have information re: a specific product or service, they can seek it out at a time that is convenient for them. Thank you for representing my voice when decisions are made.